TOBA TO HOLD NEW OWNER SEMINAR IN HALLANDALE BEACH, FLORIDA

LEXINGTON, Ky. -- The Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association (TOBA) announced today that it will conduct a New Owner Seminar on Friday, February 22, at the Hampton Inn, directly across from Gulfstream Park, in Hallandale Beach, Florida. The seminar, sponsored by Blood-Horse Publications, will feature discussions on industry business issues, options for acquiring horses including partnerships, auctions and claiming as well as a discussion about veterinary topics. Speakers include Terry Finley, Rollin Baugh and Peter Vegso.

The seminar will begin at 8 a.m. and will include breakfast, lunch and an afternoon of racing at Gulfstream Park.

The registration fee for the New Owner Seminar is $75 for TOBA members and $100 for non-members and includes all support materials, admission to the track and meals.

TOBA's next seminar is a New Owner Seminar scheduled for April 18 at Prairie Meadows in Altoona, Iowa. For a complete list of TOBA seminars and clinics visit www.toba.org or for more information, please contact Erin Halliwell at 859-276-2291 or ehalliwell@toba.org.

TOBA, based in Lexington, Ky., was formed in 1961 and is a national trade organization of leading Thoroughbred horse breeders and owners. TOBA's mission is to "improve the economics, integrity and pleasure of the sport on behalf of Thoroughbred owners and breeders." Projects managed by TOBA include the American Graded Stakes Committee, The Racing Game, Sales Integrity Program and Claiming Crown. TOBA is the owner of The Blood-Horse Inc., and is represented on the Board of Directors of the National Thoroughbred Racing Association as a founding member.
