Five New Tracks Join TOBA Owners Concierge

LEXINGTON, Ky. – Following a successful launch last month, an additional five tracks have joined the TOBA Owners Concierge, boosting the initiative's participating tracks to 20. The list of incoming tracks consists of Canterbury Park, Los Alamitos Race Course, Northlands Park, Prairie Meadows and Remington Park.

The TOBA Owners Concierge, which has been developed to provide concise information presented in an easily accessible format (www.ownersconnection.horse), is an owner-based initiative that, both directly and indirectly, caters to the Thoroughbred owners' needs. Presented by Fasig-Tipton and headed by Owner Concierge services director Christina Bossinakis, the initiative was developed to act as a liaison between horse owners and racetracks. It also serves to enhance Thoroughbred owners' on-track and off-track experience by offering information about local resources, in addition to providing owners with the needed support and guidance as they negotiate the sport's vast and sometimes daunting channels.

Already on board are Aqueduct, Arlington Park, Belmont Park, Churchill Downs, Fair Grounds, Golden Gate Fields, Gulfstream Park, Laurel Park, Monmouth Park, Oaklawn Park, Pimlico Race Course, Santa Anita Park, Saratoga Race Course, Tampa Bay Downs and Woodbine Racetrack.

A board of directors appointed to oversee the Owners Concierge includes TOBA president Dan Metzger, Fasig-Tipton president and CEO Boyd Browning, Fasig-Tipton client development & public relations manager Anna Seitz, Glen Hill Farm president Craig Bernick, Starlight Racing's Jack Wolf and Bethlehem Stables' Mike Caruso.
